

Meet Your

Great-Grandparents at the Library of Michigan

You may not be able to pick your family, but in the Library of Michigan's genealogy section, you may meet some of your long-lost relatives. Thanks to the Abrams Foundation Historical Collection, the Library of Michigan is one of the top 10 genealogy libraries in the country. Whether your ancestors came from New York or the Upper Peninsula, chances are our collection will introduce you to the great-great-uncle you never knew you had.

Are you beginning your search to find your roots or have you become a seasoned genealogist? The Library of Michigan houses thousands of resources to assist you, such as the Michigan 1870

Census, family histories, ships' passenger lists, and workshops that teach you how to use specific materials. "The Library of Michigan staff is and has always been notorious for being helpful," adds genealogist Joanne Harvey.

Branch out at the Library of Michigan and find your family tree!

Visit or call the Library of Michigan Abrams Foundation Historical Collection at 517-373-1300.

Library of Michigan
717 West Allegan • Lansing, MI 48915
517-373-1300
www.libraryofmichigan.org

Monday – Friday: 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. Saturday: 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Sunday: 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.